Car-ry me back to old Vir-gin-ny. There's where the cot-ton and the corn and ta-ters grow;
Car-ry me back to old Vir-gin-ny. There let me live— till I with-er and de-cay;

5

There's where the birds war-ble sweet in the spring-time, There's where this old dark-y's Long by the old Dis-mal Swamp have I wan-der'd, There's where this old dark-y's heart am long'd to go, There's where I la-bor'd all day in the cot-ton, life will pass a-way. Mas-sa and Mis-sus have gone long be-fore me,

11

There's where I work'd in the fields of yel-low corn, No place on earth do I Soon we will meet on that bright and gol-den shore. There we'll be hap-py and love more sin-cere-ly, Than old Vir-gin-ny the— state where I was born.

free from all sor-row, There's where we'll meet— and we'll ne-ver part no more.
